Note exchanged at Tokyo December 3, 1968
Entered into force December 3, 1968

Exchange of Notes between the Government of the Republic of Korea and the Government of Japan concerning Mutual Protection of Rights on Trade Marks

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan to the Embassy of the Republic of Korea

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs presents its compliments to the Embassy of the Republic of Korea and has the honour to refer to the conversations which have recently taken place between the representatives of the Government of Japan and the Government of the Republic of Korea concerning mutual protection of rights on trade marks. The arrangements reached as a result of these conversations are as follows:

1. Nationals of the Republic of Korea shall, within the territories of Japan, be accorded, subject to the relevant laws and regulations of Japan, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to nationals of Japan with respect to the enjoyment of rights on trade marks.
2. Nationals of Japan shall, within the territories of the Republic of Korea, be accorded, subject to the relevant laws and regulations of the Republic of Korea, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to nationals of the Republic of Korea with respect to the enjoyment of rights on trade marks.
3. "Nationals" as referred to in the preceding paragraphs shall include juridical persons.
4. The present arrangements may be terminated by either Government giving six months ' notice in writing to the other.

The Ministry has further the honour to propose that the present Note Verbale and the Embassy 's Note Verbale in reply thereto confirming the foregoing arrangements to be acceptable to the Government of the Republic of Korea be considered to constitute an agreement between the two Government which becomes effective as from the date of the Embassy ' s Note Verbale in reply.

The Ministry avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the Republic of Korea the assurances of its highest consideration.
